HISTORY

DEDICATION

William C. Grimm, former science teacher and coach, who spent 13 years unselfishly giving us his time and experiences, who was always first in helping the students with their problems, always willing to sponsor a social event or contribute time and energy to make it more successful, who was not only a swell teacher but also a very good friend, whose high purpose, sincerity and warm personality have won the loyalty of us all, we honor by dedicating the 1951 ARCH to him.

CLASS HISTORY

We, the Class of 1951, entered the halls of Grantsville High School in 1947 as enthusiastic Freshmen, knowing that we would be the first class to graduate from the twelfth grade system. Our class was divided into two groups with Miss Borrer and Mr. Grimm as our homeroom sponsors. One outstanding event in our Freshman year was that of the operetta, "Tulip Time," presented by the music department of G.H.S.

On September 8, 1948, we began to set our record as the silly Sophomores, and Mr. Grimm, with the patience of Job, was again our homeroom sponsor. The highlight of the year was the Prom given to the Seniors of 1949 by our class.

With scarcely a trace of greenness left, we began our Junior year in September, 1949. One highlight of the year was the play entitled "Meet the Wife" we presented. This was a big success, we thought.

The long-awaited-for honor of becoming dignified Seniors was ours in the fall of 1950 with Miss Speicher as our homeroom sponsor. Dale Yommer was elected class president. The play, "Grapes for Dinner," which we presented, the many dances we attended, and most of all the Junior-Senior Prom, made our Senior year the most outstanding in our eventful lives. But with all of our memories of the past years we shall never forget our dear old Grantsville High School. Even though we know that graduating from high school will mean endless sacrifices, we will face the future resolutely.

CLASS SONG

(Tune: "On the Mall")

Class of fifty-one tonight our hearts are light and gay,
We are brave, we are proud and we may,
Hope for all a future with a pathway that is bright,
Where our goal we'll attain through our might.
Let us hear our voices ringing, "We are always ready,"
Green and Gold, Green and Gold, lead us on!
There will always be old G.H.S. in long years gone,
You're our joy, hope, and courage rare.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1951, in the town of Grantsville, the County of Garrett, and the State of Maryland, being in good mental condition as usual, and in much better temper than usual, do hereby make this, our last will and testament, rendering void and of no avail any former will or wills that may have been previously made by us during a period of temporary, optimism.

We have no specific directions to leave concerning our funeral, but we do hope you will come prepared to praise as well as bury us, forgetting the trifling faults that may have been ours and remembering only our manifold and remarkable virtues.

IN THIS MANNER DO WE DISPOSE OF OUR POSSESSIONS:

To the eighth grade class, we leave all the poise and dignity of the Senior Class.

We leave the Freshmen our winning ways with the teachers.

We bequeath our ability to slide in and out of trouble to the Sophomores.

To the Juniors, we leave our ability to successfully publish THE LINK, our school newspaper.

To the principal and the teachers, we leave the undergraduates for their new pride and joys.

Jeanne Lohr wills her ability to dance gracefully to Ruth Michael.

Shirley Engle leaves her permission to sleep in Math Class to Cecilia Minick and her "Pepsodent Smile" to Anna Ruth Turner.

To Eloise Durst, Mildred Bittinger bequeaths her big, beautiful, blue eyes and smallness of stature.

Margaret Krause wills her brain and ability to argue to Selva Jean Broadwater.

To Jean Jones, Dortha Miller leaves her technique for jumping out of music room windows and to Margie Kelley, her ways with the Accident boys.

Virginia Winebrenner bequeaths her good grades to Marvin Snyder and her soprano voice to Donald Rafferty.

To Emma Mae Crowe, Mary Jean Green leaves some of her old flames.

Leora Meyers bequeaths her comb and mirror to Wilda Warnick.

Helen Wilburn bequeaths her position as editor of THE LINK to Gene Swauger.

To Doris McKenzie, Donna Turner leaves her giggle.

Due to Jo Ellen Buckel's love for red-haired boys, Martha Durst leaves all of hers to Jo Ellen.

Bernadette Glotfelty bequeaths her ability to chaffeur for Bob Diehl to Kathryn Resh.

To the public, Owena Crowe leaves the Junior Class and to Leo Miller, all of her love.

Hamill Glotfelty bequeaths his knowledge of baseball to Glenn Patton and his ability to drive cars with the wheels locked to George Bittner.

Orlo Folk wills his talent for shellacking noses to Gene Beachy and also his position as standing by the girls shower door and whistling at all who come out to Bill Lowry.

To Richard Yommer, Sue Durst leaves her "sweet" temper and to Verda Durst her driving ability.

Dale Yommer leaves his ambition to walk to Hardesty's every night to Roberta Railey.

To Henry Snyder, Homer Yommer wills his ways with the girls and to Merle Hoover his good looks.

Mary LeGeer bequeaths her ability to eat in class to Helen Otto.

Vera Murphy leaves her love for football players to Peggy Durst.

To Jane Bowman, Eileen Layman bequeaths her "wonderful" attitude toward school and to Wesley Kunkle her ability to get along "well" with the principal.

To its rightful owner, Donald Wengerd, Harry Bowers leaves his nickname, "Hopalong."

Bertrand Michael wills his talent for impersonating Al Jolson to Robert Railey.

Cecil Kelley, the Senior basketball star leaves his ability to Carl Butler.

To Carl Spratt, Edwin Wampler bequeaths his acting talent.

Everett Baker wills his small feet to Charles Speicher.

To Ruth Croft, Norma Broadwater leaves her reducing diet and to the undergraduates her love.

Rosalie Broadwater leaves her baton twirling ability to Mary Durst.

To Shirley Lancaster, Eleanor Wiemer bequeaths her bashful ways.

Janice Jones leaves her imperfect attendance record to Clara Carey and her technique for getting diamond rings to Zona Kinsinger.

William Stanton bequeaths his western outfit to Paul Clark and his methods for making money to Owen Bittering.

Besides these bequests, we leave our best wishes to any and all who may desire them.

Any property or personal possessions of ours that may remain in addition to the items specified we give and bequeath to the Garrett County Board of Education to use as it sees fit. We can think of nothing that we have forgotten except our old books, and we suggest that they be given to the Freshman Class, thus saving money which may be applied either to the teachers' salaries or toward the purchase of mouth organs, ukuleles, and kazoos for the school band. Of course, this is entirely a matter for the discretion of the school board.

Finally, we do hereby name and appoint as the sole executor of this, our last will and testament, our class adviser, Miss Speicher.

In witness whereof we, the Class of 1951, the testator, have set our hand and seal on this seventh day of June in the year of 1951.

Committee: Rosalie Broadwater
Norma Broadwater
Vera Murphy
Mary LeGeer

CLASS PROPHECY

Well, here we are at the fair and before us is the tent of Mademoiselle Rozeetta who is going to let us gaze into her crystal ball to see the future of the members of the graduating class of Grantsville High School, Class of 1951.

Ah-h, as we gaze, the magic begins to work! We hear church music and on a dimly lighted altar we see a priest. For a moment we think our eyes are betraying us, but no, it is our old classmate, Johnny Michael.

Next, we find ourselves in an art gallery gazing at a famous masterpiece. The distinguished artist and her husband are watching the on-lookers. Oh-h of all things, it's Shirley Engle with Darell Railey!

Why, what's this coming up? A country beauty shop with Vera Murphy's name on the door, and out in the field turkeys and chickens galore belonging to whom? Hamill Glotfelty, her husband, of course.

Looking a little deeper into the crystal ball and whom do we see but Jeanne Lohr closing school for the day. We wonder if her gay mood was brought on by Johnny Keister's return.

Look what's coming next! There must be some power to prophecy as we see Vernon Miller as the Class of 1949 predicted. Who is the gay, new bride with him? Why, it could only be our own Janice Jones.

By the moss-laden trees we can tell we are nearing North Carolina. As we near a little white cottage so fashionable in the South, we see none other than Helen Wilburn and her high school sweetheart Eugene Weimer. Could it be they have recently "tied the knot?"

As we wait at a train crossing for the train to pass, we are wondering what the next scene will be. We do not have to wonder long for the train is upon us and the engineer waves to us. His friendly smile betrays him; it's Everett Baker.

The train is gone into the distance and the aroma of ether reaches. We see the Naval Hospital in Bethesda, Maryland. This is a surprise! However, by the twinkle in her brown eyes we know the head nurse to be Virginia Winebrenner, who is now giving orders to newcomers; and one of the newcomers is our old classmate Eleanor Weimer.

A few brief moments pass and the scene changes to the Chicago World's Fair. Whom do we see in the ring with the prize-winning shorthorn beef but our old classmate, Bill Stanton. On the sideline stands his wife, Millie Bittinger, proudly beaming.

The cheery atmosphere of a party enjoying Arthur Godfrey's Talent Hunt on television comes next to our view. Who is the next contestant? None other than our class comedian, Eileen Layman.

Gazing again into the magic ball, we see a small-town high school and the home economics department where a demonstration in cooking is being conducted. We find the demonstrator to be our old pal Rozie Broadwater.

Next, a city mansion where a tea is in progress. The host and hostess are making their guests feel at ease. This is a surprise! It's Mary LeGeer and Harry Brenneman.

As the mansion fades we see a small cottage and coming up the walk is Dave Walls. His wife opens the door for him, and by her tiny voice we know that it is Margaret Krause.

Ah, the city of Washington comes next into view, where we see the President's secretary entering her office. As she turns, her school-girl complexion identifies her as Leora Meyers.

Our magic ball now seems to be taking us to Los Angeles, California, just in time for the great Miss America beauty contest. As the contestants come forward, we see Mary Green. It seems that her bright red hair and shapely figure have just won her the title of Miss America.

We leave the crowds behind and go to a farm at Jennings. Someone is feeding a flock of chickens and a man is coming from the barn. Since the man is Leo Miller we know the woman to be Owena Crowe.

Do secretaries really sit on the bosses' knee? Well, we will soon find out for this is Dr. Robert Diehl's office coming up and at the desk we see two people instead of one sitting. Without guessing, we know that the second person is his secretary, Bernadette Glotfelty.

Next, we hear the strumming of a guitar. As we come nearer, we see that it is Mary Agnes McKenzie serenading Edwin Wampler with "good old mountain music."

Gone so suddenly! A modern kitchen comes into view and does dinner smell good! Look! The couple is Martha Durst and Charles Weber.

The scene shifts to a small-town high school where we see a physical education class in action. Directing the gymnastics is our star basketball player, Sue Durst, now a physical education teacher in the new high school.

Appearing next is the city of Hollywood where a famous movie star is being interviewed. His wavy hair reminds us of our old classmate Harry Bowers. As we look again, we see it is Harry. The person interviewing him is our old friend Norma Broadwater, now a famed newspaper reporter.

It seems we have been doing a lot of traveling and here we are back in Accident, Maryland, the scene taking place in the corner drugstore. As the soda jerk raises her head after completing a banana split, we see her to be our old classmate, Dot Miller.

Coming next into view is a familiar baker, and in the kitchen making gayly decorated cakes is Donna Turner, the country's specialist in cake baking.

It seems our scene is moving out to sea. As a great ship comes over the horizon and the captain shouts "Ahoy" we can identify that deep voice as none other than Dale Yommer. It seems he is waving to a great plane over head. The pilot is our old friend Sgt. Homer Yommer of the U. S. Air Force on his latest round-the-world flight.

As yet we haven't seen the future of Orlo Folk and Cecil Kelly, but wait we see a faint glow in the ball. As it clears we see it is Orlo's chicken farm where Cecil is just leaving the farm with a truck load of his best birds.

The picture fades away and we realize we were granted a mere gaze into the future. As we leave we turn to thank Made-moiselle for our happy journey.

Committee: Virginia Winebrenner
Helen Wilburn

LOOSE LEAVES FROM A SENIOR'S DIARY

September 2, 1947

Dear Diary: Today, as Freshmen, we assembled in the auditorium to begin our exciting life as high school students. Imagine our enthusiasm!

October 30, 1947

Dear Diary: A play called "The Ghost of Benjamin Sweet," was presented in the auditorium by some of the members of our class. This play went over big since it fit right into the season of Hallowe'en.

December 15, 1947

Dear Diary: We presented a hobby show today in Room 15. The other classes were invited to view the exhibit.

May 6, 1948

Dear Diary: The home economics girls were selected to serve the Mother-Daughter Banquet. The Juniors and Seniors were honored guests.

May 13, 1948

Dear Diary: The vocational girls were again chosen to serve the F.F.A. banquet which was held in the school auditorium tonight.

May 26, 1948

Dear Diary: The operetta, "Tulip Time," was presented tonight in the school auditorium under the direction of Mr. Cole.

June 10, 1948

Dear Diary: Today we are completing our year as verdant Freshmen but we are looking forward to next September when we can accept our responsibilities as Sophomores.

February 24, 1949

Dear Diary: We Sophomores held a square dance tonight under the direction of Mr. Grimm to raise funds to sponsor the Junior-Senior Prom.

May 13, 1949

Dear Diary: The Variety Show was presented tonight by the music department with Mr. Cole as instructor.

May 25, 1949

Dear Diary: The F.H.A. and F.F.A. sponsored a picnic at Pleasant Valley. We all ate too much, but even at that we had fun.

May 27, 1949

Dear Diary: This is the event we have waited for. The Junior-Senior Prom was held in the school auditorium tonight. Everyone had a starry look in his eyes as the mellow notes of the orchestra sounded through the auditorium.

June 7, 1949

Dear Diary: We ended our Sophomore year today and were wondering how we would spend our vacation. We had a farewell party for our core teacher, Miss Caulk, who had been so kind and generous to us.

June 9, 1949

Dear Diary: The Seniors of 1949 graduated tonight in the school auditorium. Farewell, Seniors!

September 7, 1949

Dear Diary: Here we are Jolly Juniors and walking the halls of G.H.S. again. Our class adviser is Miss Speicher since there are no Seniors.

January 27, 1950

Dear Diary: Today our class proudly published the first edition of THE LINK, our school newspaper.

February 6, 1950

Dear Diary: Our schedule was changed today. We now have two periods of core each day instead of the separate classes of English and History.

March 17, 1950

Dear Diary: The F.H.A. and F.F.A. sponsored the Shamrock Shindig in honor of St. Patrick's Day.

March 20, 1950

Dear Diary: We were measured for our school rings today.

June 5, 1950

Dear Diary: The operetta, H.M.S. Pinafore, was given tonight. The members of the cast presented Miss Tracy, our instructor, with a corsage.

September 6, 1950

Dear Diary: School began today as the Class of 1951 proudly walked the halls of G.H.S. again. We have welcomed five new teachers to our faculty--Mr. Riggs, Mr. A. Brown, Mr. Moran, Mr. Cobun, and Mr. Ayers.

October 16, 1950

Dear Diary: Our class officers were elected today--President, Dale Yommer; Vice President, Margaret Krause; Secretary, Mary LeGeer; and Treasurer, Vera Murphy.

November 18, 1950

Dear Diary: The G.H.S. band journeyed to Morgantown W.Va. today where they were represented at the Maryland-West Virginia football game.

November 20, 1950

Dear Diary: Mr. Harold Carl from Frostburg took our pictures today.

November 22, 1950

Dear Diary: We presented a Thanksgiving play entitled "Grapes for Dinner," which was very amusing to the school audience.

December 15, 1950

Dear Diary: Today we had the privilege of choosing our name cards and announcements. We will order them within a few days.

December 18, 1950

Dear Diary: The Junior Class held a Mistletoe Dance tonight in the auditorium. This is one of the events we will remember.

February 2, 1951

Dear Diary: The Grantsville High School was represented at the Tri-State Band Festival held at Martinsburg, West Virginia. Those participating were: Mildred Bittinger, Zona Kinsinger, Robert Railey, Kay Beachy, Elizabeth Warnick, Jane Bowman, Robert Diehl, Donna Yommer, and Shirley Yoder.

June 11, 1951

Dear Diary: This is the day the Senior Class of 1951 has waited for--Graduation. Thirty-one Seniors will receive diplomas tonight. Graduation will take place in the school auditorium. We must now bid a fond farewell to our Alma Mater and to our teachers we wish to express our sincere thanks.

FAREWELL SONG

(Tune: Harbor Lights)

Goodby to Grantsville High,
We now can call you Alma Mater,
Our eyes are looking toward the path you paved for us.
Goodby to tender years we spent so near our dear old classmates,
So long dear Green and Gold,
You've raised our spirits high,
We'll always hold you dear for all the things you are,
For on life's narrow path your light will lead us far.
Now we will bid farewell to all the friends we have encountered,
And in some future year our hearts will meet again.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council was organized in order to help create a proper state of mind among the students. Student Council meetings are called whenever necessary; the main function of the council being to consider those problems of the students which present themselves in the high school. At present the council is composed of 24 members, four students having been chosen from each grade.

THE SAFETY PATROL

The Safety Patrol of the Grantsville School was organized in 1936. There are now 54 members on the school patrol, 27 of which work in and around the school. In addition to their regular duties, the patrol usually serves during fire drills, street parades, and other activities.

Because the Grantsville School is located on Route 40, it is reputed to have the second most dangerous place in the State for the loading and unloading of school buses. We are proud of the fact that up to this time no accident of any description has ever occurred to any student.

GRANTSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL BAND

Due to the great marching and playing ability, the Grantsville High School Band is rapidly becoming one of the prize-winning high school units in Maryland. Since its beginning November 12, 1948, the 41 piece unit has made 200 public appearances and received over $2000 in prizes and awards.

One of the highlights in the development of the band was its appearance in the Army Day Parade at Pittsburgh, April 9, 1948. During the same year an invitation was accepted to represent the University of Maryland at the Maryland-West Virginia football game which was played at Morgantown, West Virginia. In 1950 the privilege was again extended to them.

Becoming almost an annual affair, is the Tri-State Band Festival, Martinsburg, West Virginia, in which representatives from the Grantsville Band have taken part for the past two years. Representatives chosen were: Robert Railey, Jane Bowman, Donna Yommer, Robert Diehl, Elizabeth Ann Warnick, Kay Beachy, Millie Bittinger, Claudia Bittinger, Zona Kinsinger, Shirley Kamp, and Shirley Yoder.

Representatives also participated in the All-State Band in 1947, 1948, and 1949. Since 1949, the All-State Band has been discontinued.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUB

The Girls' Athletic Club is to further interest in physical education activities, which consist of stunts, quiet games suitable for parties and camps, active games both indoor and outdoor, folk dancing, and action songs. Problems concerning the athletic activities within the school are discussed.

Officers are: President, Shirley Kamp; Vice President, Sue Durst; Secretary, Kay Beachy; Treasurer, Dortha Miller. Club advisers, Miss Morford and Mrs. Savereno.

SOCCER

The Soccer season opened with a game between Grantsville and Friendsville. Perhaps during this first game the Golden Bears were overly anxious to display their best playing ability for their new coach, Mr. Ayers; they won only one of the county games and scored in two games. However, we appreciate the effort and hard work of both the boys and the coach.

BOYS' BASKETBALL 1950-51

After much hard practice the Golden Bears won four of their eighteen games, two county games, one non-county game, and the Alumni, this season.

Only two members of this year's team will be lost through graduation, Cecil Kelly and Harry Bowers.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Wearing new yellow satin uniforms, coach Morford's girls opened the basketball season by setting back Beall High 45-26. Beall High's team was completely outscored and outplayed by our girls when they traveled to Frostburg. They were likewise victorious over a hustling Accident High team twice 34-28, 37-24.

After the three fine victories, the Bears went to sleep during the Friendsville game played at Grantsville and before they awoke they had been scuffed by the Friendsville team 55-48. However, they rallied, traveled to Friendsville, and trounced the Wolverines 41-37.

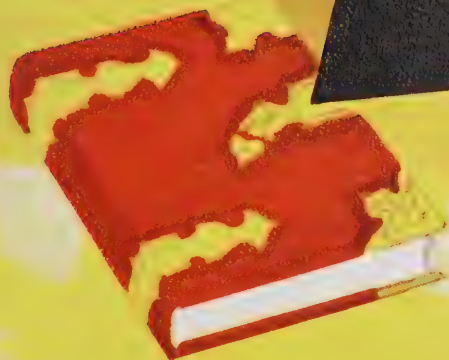

The girls received their worst defeat of the season at Oakland 54-43. There was a good chance for the lassies to capture the County Championship in the return game, but the players were just "off the ball" and the game ended 39-28.

Three Seniors, Norma Broadwater, Eileen Layman, and Sue Durst will proudly leave their new uniforms to next year's team.
